

Image Transfer, Photo Transfer, Video Transfer Apps - Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy governs your use of the Image Transfer, Photo Transfer, Video Transfer (the "Application") created by Yevgen Plokhov for use on a mobile device. The Application allows users to transfer photos and videos directly from one mobile device to another device or computer using a Wi-Fi network or connected cloud accounts (Dropbox, Google Drive and Flickr). The photos transferred are not stored on any intermediary server at any point – all transfers are executed directly device to device or to user's account.

What information does the Application obtain and how is it used?

The Application may collect certain information about you automatically, such as the type of mobile device you use, the local IP address of your mobile device, your mobile operating system, and information about the way you use the Application in order to operate, maintain, and provide the features and functionality of the Application and so we can provide you with a better user experience (the "Automatically Collected Information").

If you want to subscribe to our newsletter, we ask you to provide your email address and certain other information. In that case, this information may be shared with our third party service providers. We will use this information only in connection with providing you the newsletter and for no other purpose. You may remove yourself from our newsletter email list by following the "Unsubscribe" directions included in each newsletter you receive.

Other than the information you may choose to provide in order to subscribe to our newsletter, we do not collect personally identifiable information about you. In other words, we do not collect information such as your name, address, phone number or email address. This Application does not collect information about the location of your mobile device.

Third Parties

Third party analytics providers may access data on our behalf. We may work with analytics companies such as Amplitude and Firebase by Google to help us understand how the Application is being used, such as the frequency and duration of usage, the type of device being used and other non-personally identifiable information so we can deliver a better experience and improve the Application.

We may disclose Automatically Collected Information:

- as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena, or similar legal process;
- when we believe in good faith that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights, protect your safety or the safety of others, investigate fraud, or respond to a government request;
- with trusted service providers who work on or behalf; and
- if we are involved in a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our assets.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to, and we cannot control the activities of, third- parties that may collect information about your use of the Application. For example, Apple and Google collect information about those who obtain the Application through their services, and may make this information available to us. Please consult the respective privacy policies of such third-parties for more information.

Your Consent

By using the Application, you are consenting to the terms of this Privacy Policy, including the collection of Automatically Collected Information, as described in this Privacy Policy now and as it may be amended.
